

CQ Federal

Powerful, intelligent tools to help policy professionals track and understand bills in Congress.

Be the first to know about federal legislation

Things change fast, and you need to know the moment your bills get updates (or new bills are on the way). CQ Federal delivers, both in email and via the app, ensuring you are always the first to know.

The updates you need (not the noise you don't)

Wading through irrelevant information wastes time. Our precision alerts are the biggest reason clients switch to us – we deliver the exact legislative updates you're after, making sure you never miss a thing while sparing you the inbox deluge.

Powerful reports so you can make sense of it all

Do you need to compare two versions of a bill? Report on the voting history of a member? Deliver a summary of key bill facts? CQ Federal helps you do all of these and more with our popular report-generating tools.

Save time with advanced search tools

The federal government produces thousands of documents, but you only need to find the ones that matter to you. Our tools help you quickly find exactly what you need, saving you hours of time.

CQ Federal Standard:

This intro-level offering provides the most mission-critical content for any Government Relations professional.

Bill Track

Follow bills in real time as they travel through Congress. CQ Bill Track is searchable and alertable by keyword, bill number, committee, subcommittee, sponsor, co-sponsor, chamber, legislative stage, appropriations bill, and more. An archive of content is available back to the 99th Congress (1985).

Bill Analysis

Receive expert summaries and analysis of major bills before Congress, including background information, state of play, and prospects for passage. The CQ Bill Analysis dashboard gives you vital information on any bill with just a few clicks. We maintain an archive of bill analysis reports dating back to the 104th Congress (1995).

Custom Bill Analysis

Can't find analysis for a particular bill? CQ Federal users can make up to six custom requests per year to have our policy experts analyze legislation, with 2-3 business day turnaround.

Bill Text

Every bill, fully searchable and alertable by keyword, chamber, sponsor and co-sponsor, and more. With CQ Bill Text, you can quickly find the language you need from a House or Senate bill. Stay up-to-date on newly introduced legislation and language and quickly identify the bills that relate to your interests. Bill Text links to a full PDF from the U.S. Government Printing Office website.

Amendment Text

Get a firsthand look at amendments to the bills you care about, including draft bills, often before they've been acted on in committee or on the floor. Search by bill number, date, committee, or sponsor, and set alerts to get automatic notifications whenever there's new movement.

CRS Bill Digest

Detailed synopses of legislation, with links to related news, analysis and source material, prepared by the Congressional Research Service of the Library of Congress. Updated as material becomes available.

Committee Coverage

Coverage of key committee and subcommittee markups, delivered within 24 hours. Our markups include an easy-to-scan summary, links to important amendments, and full vote breakdowns. All content is searchable and alertable with an archive dating back to the 101st Congress (1989).

Committee Reports

The full text of every committee report, searchable by keyword and bill number, and organized by the full text, outline, and sections with keywords. This service works in tandem with Committee Coverage.

Floor Votes

CQ Floor Votes tracks how every member voted on the House and Senate floors since the 102nd Congress (1991). We include an overview of each vote, the vote count, and the final outcome, including members who abstained. Votes are published on the site within two hours of each vote. The database is searchable and alertable by keyword, bill number, member, subject, vote number and more.

Federal Register

With more than 480,000 documents available, the Federal Register is the official daily publication for the rules, regulations, proposed rules and notices of federal agencies, as well as executive orders, proclamations, and other presidential documents. All Federal Register documents dating back to 1997 are published in full text and are searchable and alertable by keyword, date, agency name, and item type.

Congressional Record

The official record of the proceedings and debates of Congress, meticulously edited to ensure it matches the print edition. Updated daily and searchable by 9 a.m. Also includes an easy-to-use abstract of the daily Congressional Record, which is available by mid-afternoon the day the Congressional Record is published. This feature allows users to browse legislative action, new legislation introduced, reports filed, speeches made and various other procedural steps for both the House and Senate. Includes links to BillTrack, Member Profiles, Floor Votes and Congressional Record text.

Archives

The CQ Archives are the repository of all the content we made available online up to the 104th Congress. The archives contain: CQ BillTrack, CQ BillWatch, and CRS Bill Digest (back to the 99th, 104th, and 101st Congresses respectively). Bill Text and Congressional Record (100th-104th Congress). CQ Committee Coverage, Committee Reports, and Transcripts (101st-104th Congress). CQ Monitor News (99th-104th Congress). CQ Floor Votes (98th-104th Congress). Federal Register (1990-1998)

CQ Federal Advanced:

Everything included in at the Standard level,
plus greater depth and more data.

CQ House

Originally designed for exclusive use by the House of Representatives, CQ House delivers five distinct, analytical reports that are easily searchable and alertable, ensuring you receive exactly what you want from the House floor in real time. Our veteran team provides comprehensive analysis of every measure considered on the House floor, along with anticipated amendments, floor summaries, and fact sheets for major legislation.

CQ Senate

CQ Senate delivers legislative news and in-depth schedule information directly from the Senate floor. Our analysts offer twice-daily takes and curated updates on activity unfolding in the Senate, which you can access through custom email alerts and the CQ Senate newsletter. Our forward-looking analysis will help you stay on top of upcoming legislation and help you better gauge the odds of a bill's passage.

Member Profiles

CQ Member Profiles is a searchable reference database for every member of Congress, including an archive of former members dating back to the 104th Congress (1995). This database contains detailed staff, state and district information, comprehensive member biographies, full direct contact information, voting records and electoral histories, committee assignments, legislative priorities, speeches, interest group ratings, and positions on key issues and legislation. Member Profiles also provides government contract data, grant information, and major public and private employers, all organized by district and state.

Hot Docs

Updated daily, Hot Docs is the most comprehensive collection of government source documents available, including draft bill text, agency documents, press releases, "Dear Colleague" letters, OMB, CBO and GAO documents, and other hard-to-find government reports. The database is searchable and alertable by keyword, bill number, member, committee, subcommittee, document type, issuing agency, and more, with a robust content archive dating back to the 104th Congress (1995).

Custom Document Request

Can't find a special government document in our database? Use our "Request a Document" feature to have a member of our staff track down recently released documents that aren't yet listed.

CRS Reports

With nearly 50,000 unique reports in our database, and every CRS report since 1993, we are the most comprehensive source for the reports published by the Congressional Research Service for members of Congress and their staff. Our database is full-text searchable and alertable, with a digital archive dating back to the 95th Congress (1977).

Floor Video

When a member important to you speaks, we make it easier than ever to find and replay the footage. CQ Floor Video provides searchable, streaming, gavel-to-gavel video coverage of the House and Senate floor, so you'll never miss a single word. Fully searchable back to the 108th Congress (January 2003), Floor Video includes a Day View feature that allows you to quickly see an entire day on the floor, including the members who spoke and the policy topics that received the most attention. You can also email direct links to streaming video to colleagues and stakeholders.

Law Track

Law Track helps you quickly identify how pending bills would change current laws. You won't have to comb through hundreds of pages of text to find the legislative impact — Law Track does it for you, linking the text of a given bill to the exact section of U.S. Code it would modify, saving you hours of work. You can create custom email alerts that serve as an early warning system, notifying you as soon as bills are introduced that would affect the laws you monitor.

More people choose CQ Federal than any other product for good reason. If you need to know what's happening, and you don't have time to waste, you need CQ Federal.
